A Brief Message from Tyler:

I was speaking with Wade and Adrienne and I realized that I wanted to provide a word of clarity and encouragement. First, I don't know if I stated this point as clearly as I would have liked: the meeting with the Presbyterian Foundation is a beginning to a larger conversation about how we are investing our funds. There is nothing final along with the meeting nor will any decisions be made quickly. Dana will be speaking about the Presbyterian Foundation and what they can do to support our church. The Presbyterian Foundation offers many things for the good of the churches that they partner with, such as building repair loans with an interest rate that others cannot match. Tomorrow's meeting is informational, and I look forward to gaining insights for the good of Loyd Pres's future. Please attend if you are able and ask questions.

Camp Viola preparations are continuing and I wanted to share a link if you'd like to help support the cause. We have an Amazon wishlist with items that would help us during the week. These items include gifts for the campers and things to help us throughout the week. You can find the wishlist by clicking here. Thank you for your continued support of our ministry through Camp Viola.
